What others say about this ebook:

Review 1:

I can't stand it. It started out great and then became an absolutely ridiculous soap opera. There was so much potential, but the plot went into the freaking Twilight Zone. Why be so unrealistic?

Review 2:

I don't understand the 4 and 5 star reviews for this book. It was truly awful. The dialogue was stilted and did not flow. The formatting of the book did not allow you to understand who was speaking. The plot has been done a million other times by better authors. But by far the worst thing about this book was that at no time did I give a s about any of the characters. There was zero chemistry. The heroine was an idiot. There were too many distractions with the details of secondary characters, that I had to remind myself of who the main people were. I suffered through both book 1 and 2. I would not suggest this book to anyone.

Review 3:

Great book. Read it in one day. Loved the plot. I'm about to purchase part 2. Can't wait to read it. Great job, Ms. Young.

Review 4:

Man, oh man. This is seriously screwed up for all parties involved. On to read part 2. Ivan needs to get his head out of his butt

Review 5:

I enjoyed reading it....I was dying to get to the next one because was so worked up with that evil,conniving witch Ashley...I just found the sequel and I was glad she got what was coming to her. Stephanie got her mighty Quinn at the end...I also enjoyed the cast of characters who were great in their own way giving this series depth.
