The Art of Being a Woman: A Simple Guide to Everyday Love and Laughter

It takes a great woman to spot greatness in other women. Have a good laugh at your own expense. Discover how completely happy you are in your own skin. Such experiences, says Véronique Vienne, are expressions of the art of being a woman. In this gem of a book, Vienne gently guides women of all ages and cultures through the practical— and a few rather more whimsical— lessons in the art of womanhood and in the joy of loving life as only a woman can. Along the way, she imparts unique gifts of wisdom such as:

- An alert mind is the most eye-catching feature of a face.
- Smart compliments can improve the way you look as much as be

What others say about this ebook:

Review 1:

Very sweet little guide to being a woman without feeling threatened or stressed out by other women or daily tasks.

Review 2:

A fantastic book with an interesting point of view. She speaks about having "class" without saying it exactly that way. "...the woman who really appeals to you, in a crowded room, is probably not the prettiest or the best dressed, but oddly, someone graceful, whose demeanor somehow piques your curiosity". Also; "congratulating someone we admire comforts the soul". "We would not experience as much pleasure in life if we held back our compliments". Now we are talking-I love it.

Review 3:

Elegant, albeit true and insightful way of expressing womanhood in many of her facets. Beautiful prose of Veronique Vienne.

Review 4:

I was bored, uninspired and didn't find any take-aways.

Review 5:

I love all of her books. Wish she had some new ones!
