Dedication And Leadership

On March 14, 1948, Douglas Hyde handed in his resignation as the news editor of the London Daily Worker and wrote "the end" to twenty years of his life as a member of the Communist Party. A week later, in a written statement, Hyde announced that he had renounced Communism and, with his wife and children, was joining the Catholic Church.

What others say about this ebook:

Review 1:

Love the Biblical perspective, it makes you realize how important it is to truly abide in Christ and live our lives with purpose, dedication, and leadership.

Review 2:

Well written, gripping and still relevant to our times. Just take out communism and sub terrorism and it brings a whole new perspective to that issue and even to smaller more local issues we each face

Review 3:

Hyde has written a great field guide for those wanting a group that rises above the typical "90% do nothing, while 10% do all the work." Hyde shows that high expectations for PARTICIPATION right at the outset is the key! He provides step-bystep instructions on how to build a group of dynamos! Good read...

Review 4:

ONE MANS STUDY THROUGH PARTICIPATION IN COMMUNISM AND CHRISTIANITY

Review 5:

Mr. Hyde does a great job of laying out what the communist did right in a wrong way. He shows in this book that many of the methods that the communist used to develop leaders are not only good but in some cases best. There are many applications that can be made with this book. I would encourage anybody reading this book to have the bible next to them and write out verses that come to mind as they read along.
